THE FEAR AND HATE MINDSETS SURROUNDING THE AMERICAN PRESIDENCY OF BARACK OBAMA

By Carl Warren, Sr. PhD

In the year of 2011 there still persist a historical culture of a malignancy cancerous condition based on a fearful, hateful, and sickening and an all pervasive racist and class based greedy mindset in America.

This destructive cultural mindset of America is a smaller reflection of the other capitalistic racial and economic class based cultures throughout the world where imperialist colonialist and neocolonialist systems have left their imprints or are leaving their footprints in the sands of time of these places.

These mindsets are made very clear when it comes to the most recent so-called "Tea Party" or the White back lashing revolutionary groups and other similar right-wing terrorist organizations which persist in demanding "by any means necessary" the return of America to them.

This fearful and hateful mindset was made very clear when several groups of the revolutionary terrorist brigade in the United States Congress were willing to endorse and risk multiple imperialistic and illegitimate or illegal wars in asserting corporate dominance for the new "world order."

These racist terrorist members of the U.S. Congress who refused to negotiate in "good faith" were willing to risk the economic and civil destruction of America's "economic well being" in reestablishing white's racial superiority, white supremacy and white dominance in America and all over the world.

This racial superior mindset based on racial hate is made very clear when the U.S. Constitution has been neutralized by fear and uncertainties resulting from many years of very bad expedient imperialistic and domestic policies that have led to expedient wars for corporate greed.

These bad hateful policies have resulted in foreign and domestic enemies being created by corporation's activities via the pretext of protecting America's National Security exploitation policies. These "capitalist created" enemies have successfully brought the hellish war havoc they were experiencing in their countries to the soil of the United States of America.

Again, these “capitalist policies” created enemies that were nurtured and created by corporate greedy interests under the guise of America’s “National Interests” and “National Security.” The corporate created enemies engaged in the bombing of the September 11th New York “two towers” destruction and the bombing of other major U.S. targets, by using airplanes and other means at their disposal.

This fearful and hateful imperialist greedy mindset has been made very clear by every United States President since Dwight D. Eisenhower. President Eisenhower warned America in his existing Presidential speech of the corruptive corporate forces that were then and are still manipulating and capturing the American Presidency, the United States Congress and the United States Supreme Court, which he called then the “Military Industrial Complex.”

President Dwight D. Eisenhower warning clearly resonates in showing how every U.S. President since his dreadful and prophetic warning has been “carrying out the corporate policies and corporate agendas of Corporate America in the name of capitalistic imperialism expediency, and national security.”

The United States Presidential Administrations of President John F. Kennedy; President William Jefferson Clinton, and even today’s President Barack Hussein Obama have not been any different from the obvious Republican Presidents who are and have been historically recognized as the un-bashful “Elitist Puppets” for Corporate America.

History shows that only Democrat President Jimmy Carter tried to represent the true interest of all Americans, especially the interests of the poor and disenfranchised Americans, rather than being a tool of imperialist corporate capitalist America.

History shows how the Central Intelligence Agency, [CIA]; the Federal Bureau of Investigation, [FBI] and segments of the Military with the Corporate Media turned against President Jimmy Carter and his Administration which destroyed any chances for him to be reelected. But, despite such obstacles President Jimmy Carter persisted in doing the right things for all Americans.

This hateful, greedy and fearful mindset is made very clear when a very well financed and tight knitted organized group in Congress under the flag of the Tea Party asserted itself in capturing and destroying many aspects of President Obama healthcare and economic agenda. This well organized revolutionary conservative faction came together and asserted themselves to the point of persisting and sticking to their “guns” in their efforts of taking back America by any means necessary.

These Tea Party Extremists Marauders were very successful in achieving goals that benefitted themselves and benefitted their rich and powerful corporate benefactors, while clearly hurting disenfranchised blacks, poor people and the other most vulnerable “very young” and “elderly Americans.”

This hateful, greedy and fearful mindset is still being made very clear when the present Presidential Administration still engage in broad stroking strategies of “propaganda”, “misinformation”, “disinformation” and “racial profiling.”

These ongoing hateful, greedy, and fearful imperialistic policies has been exposed as being ongoing political tools by the present Obama administration for defending and justifying the ongoing federal government racist and “garrison like occupation attitudes and behaviors” in continuing to systematically endorse and enforce previous administrations economic policies, prison interdiction policies; immigration policies; weed and seed policies; and housing dispersing policies that continue to aide in the suppressing of political and voting rights of blacks and other disenfranchised Americans.

The frightening and ambition mindset of President Hussein Obama is made very clear when his obvious public silence, and his ineffective encouraging words to blacks and poor people to be patient is perceived as a joke for most affected individuals and groups.

Many of President Obama supporters have perceived that he has been saying one thing about hope and patience while the very harsh immigration policies, “RICO” Law and Order policies, and Greedy Forfeitures policies and other abuses have continued to have extraordinary and very adverse impacts on Blacks, Hispanics, and other disenfranchise poor people.

Many of President Obama black supporters feel that President Obama rhetoric has been all he has done for them of empty form and no substance. Many blacks can't see anything of real substance for the poor and vulnerable disenfranchised black supporters.

Many poor blacks has concluded that nothing has been done or is being publically done by him or his Administration to end very high unemployment for them; extraordinary abuses by law enforcement and excessive reintroduction of legal slavery via the judicial system; and many other such cruel, harsh and inequitable policies being publically ignored for him and his administration.

Many poor and disenfranchised blacks feel that the ambitious mindset of President Obama is what is primarily driving his policy positions. This belief is made very clear when nothing is being done by him or his administration about the excessive and unfair life sentences or reacting of the 13th Amendment enslaving sentencing guidelines and other abuses within the prison and judicial systems.

Many blacks strongly feel that as an Attorney and his inaction in addressing the 13th Amendment abuses he is in complicity in the racist regimes in America in recreating, maintaining and perpetuating a prison industrial complex. Many blacks feel that when President Obama does not speak out about such things he is either “going along to get along” in order to get reelected or he and his advisors has surrendered to the phantom fear of a political “white back lash.”

Despite the obvious racism in America and the tirade of the Tea Party like groups, many blacks have accepted that President Barack Obama's citizenship, education, skin color and lifestyle are what they are and he is a brilliant black man by any standards.

The issue and concern for poor and disenfranchised blacks is his failure to act in fulfilling his implied obligations to his black constituents and to his other Hispanic and other Constituents. Many blacks strongly feel that President Obama political “AWOL” when it comes to poor people isn't any different than some previous presidential administrations.

Many poor people strongly feel President Obama public inaction on policies that impact the quality of life for poor and disenfranchised people has been and is a clear betrayal of the hope he gave then when he espoused to them to trust him.

President Obama commitment should have early on been and in the least right now become absolutely of “doing the best job” he could as President Jimmy Carter did. I strongly believe President Obama should not have opted to engage in his personal ambition and vanity in order for him being reelected in 2012.

As an attorney President Obama seemed to have forgotten that if he would have committed himself to the dreams, inspirations and aspirations of all his constituents and not submitted himself to the rich and powerful his reelection would have been a “fail accompli.”

Many blacks’ supporters and other supporters strongly believe if President Obama had done the right things early on in his Administration things would have been different for him in 2012. Many supporters feel he would have been a sure bet to have been reelected.

Some very loyal supporters still feel if he will start doing the right things of addressing policies that negatively impact his black constituents; publically speak up and speak out for poor people and command his overall Administration to take aggressive actions against the injustices and inequalities being suffered by many blacks and his other poor and disenfranchised constituents, his very loyal supporters would be saying without any questions “Res Ipse Loquitur” about him and his administration because his and their “diligence and his duty of care for all his constituents would speak for itself”.
