How to murder an unarmed Black youth in Florida

By Al Mccray

1. Live in the Orlando area, in a town called Sanford.
2. Live in a mostly White gated community.
3. Be a "White Rambo" militia leader of a neighborhood gun-hoooo watch group.
4. Call 911 and say, a Black youth looks suspicious and must be on drugs. Cause it's an easy sell and believable to say that the Black youth was on drugs.
5. Tel 911 that he is running away from you,
6. Chase after him, even thou 911 says not to.
7. Say the Black youth was armed (with a Big drink cup and candy bar).
8. As you chase the frighten youth with your 9mm pistol in hand, yell out "Hey boy, beat these bullets to the corner."
9. Shoot the Black youth as he screams out for help.
10. Murder the Black youth and call it Self Defense,
11. Fear not, you are just murdering a Black youth,
12. Have your father to call a press conference and say, "you are not a racist."
13. Go back to the target practicing range where there are cut out figurines of Blacks, but before you do; get a book deal, and make a TV appearance on "Good Morning Murders" and buy a new pistol before you go to the pistol range.
